

Pocket Books For Servicemen Still Sought

Commending Torrance residents on their immediate reply and cooperation in a drive for pocket novels to be used by servicemen overseas in Korea, Mrs. Gordon Jones, of the Torrance Chapter of the American Red Cross announced that the need for more pocket books still exists.

Anyone having such books and wishing to donate them for the use by servicemen should contact Mrs. Jones at the Red Cross Headquarters, 54 Torrance boulevard, or telephone Torrance 3447. Arrangements will be made to have the books picked up.

Local B'nai B'rith Group Represented At District Confab

At the 29th Annual Convention of the B'nai B'rith Women of District No. 4 is to be held in San Jose, July 28 through August 1, Mrs. Adolph Kadesch, district president, will preside over a delegation of 280 delegates representing eight western states and British Columbia. Representing the local chapter will be Mrs. Bernard Robinson, president, and Mrs. Murray Rosenfeld, first vice president.

District officers and members of the executive board who will attend are Mesdames: Moe Kudler, first vice president; Jack Charnow, second vice president; David Harris, third vice president; Bernard Lavine, counselor; Polly Davidson, executive secretary; Joseph H. Stone, treasurer; Louis Kash, secretary to the president; Gerald Adler, Seymour Buchsbaum, Dave Chartkoff, Abe Corenson, Gilbert Denton, Harry Fishstrom, William Friedland, Mike Gordon, N. Philip Grayson, Emille Grossman, Jack Kamerman, Bernard Kauffman, Henry Levy, A. B. Loeb, Jerome Melvin, Julius Paul, Nate Soltz, Herman Zatkun and Howard Zimmerman.

Discussions will evaluate the outstanding accomplishments of this past year and chart a course for future growth and progress. Mrs. Kadesch has carefully planned an all-inclusive agenda geared to meet today's needs within our community. Benjamin R. Epstein, National Director of the Anti-Defamation League of B'nai B'rith is coming from New York to address the convention body. Highlighting the sessions will be a leadership-training workshop for chapter leaders under the guidance of Mrs. Arthur G. Laufman of Chicago, National Director of Women's Activities. Mrs. Ben Rosenthal, president of the Women's Supreme Council, will be in attendance at all sessions giving the delegates the benefits of her vast experience and ability. Ronnie Weiss, National President of AZA will also address the convention.

"The convention committee has spared no effort to make this event an informative, and memorable one," states Mrs. Howard Zimmerman, district convention chairman. The 29th Annual Convention will close with an installation banquet at the world famous Palomar Gardens in San Jose.
